

JOCKEY NARROWLY ESCAPES BEING DRAMPALED TO DEATH

Goes Down in a Heap in the Homestretch on Flying Buttress.

POUL DISQUALIFIES WONDERLY

Lady Uncas Lands Handicap in a Hard Drive.

MARY STREET WINS GAIETY

Mr. Featherstone's Fast Filly Captures Juvenile Race by a Neck—Himself Set Back for Foul—Blue Banner Wins at 40 to 1.

NEW YORK, May 21.—Jockey Shea had a narrow escape from death today at Morris Park. The boy had the mount on R. T. Wilson, Jr.'s colt, Flying Buttress, in the Van Courtland Handicap, run over the last seven furlongs of the Withers mile. In the middle of the stretch, with all of the horses hard ridden, Flying Buttress, who was trying to come through between Gay Boy and himself, was heavily thrown.

Shea fell under the flying hoofs, but scrambled to his feet unhurt, and hurriedly made his way to the stewards' stand, where he lodged a protest of foul against himself, who was ridden by Wonderly and had finished third, a length behind Gay Boy, with Lady Uncas the winner by a neck. The stewards allowed the claim and disqualified himself, placing Hanover Queen third. They also imposed a fine of $250 upon Wonderly for rough riding.

Gay Boy Cut Down.

Those who were close to Flying Buttress when he fell said that it was the colt's own fault, as he ran upon Gay Boy and stumbled. The fact that Gay Boy was quite severely cut down seemed to indicate that Wonderly was not so much to blame.

Gay Boy was a hot favorite in the betting, going to the post at 6 to 5, with Hanover Queen second choice at three, Lady Uncas, who ran second to Hanover Queen, the other day in a fast race, was allowed to go up to six.

Lady Uncas Sets Pace.

When the first scramble was over Lady Uncas, with J. Martin up, set a cracking pace, with Hanover Queen running second. At the turn Gay Boy moved into second place. Lady Uncas, however, stayed in front to the wire and won by a neck.

Seven races were down for decision, and the talent had a day of ups and downs. Three favorites were successful. The weather was perfect for racing and a crowd of 6,000 were on hand to witness the sport. The Gaiety Stakes for two-year-olds was the feature and was, perhaps, the most profitable of the day for the public. Mary Street was sent to the post favorite with 11 to 5 against her.

Added Starters.

J. E. Madden's Old Lady, Newton Benjamin's Lady Albemarle, and H. T. Griffin's Princess Tulane were added starters and all three were well backed, while J. R. & F. P. Keene's Duster, a smart-looking daughter of Ben Brush-Lady Inverloch, was the tip all over the ring and caught a pile of money. The race was run down the last four and one-half furlongs of the Eclipse course, and when the Withers crossing was reached Mary Steel, Duster, Love Note, Princess Tulane and Lady Love were running heads apart with the favorite in front. Mary Street responded to O'Connor's hard ride, and Duster also ran gamely, but in a half-raising finish Mary Street won by a neck. A length and a half back Lady Love took third money, a head better than Lady Love. The performances of Old Lady and Lady Albemarle were far below the mark.

Reversal of Form.

Those who had not forgotten Bookers' poor ride on Numeral Monday, played him to win the second event for maidens over the Eclipse course, and they got as much as 10 to 1 in the opening betting. Busy Lady was the favorite, at 12 to 10, with Frankfort quoted at 4 to 1.

Frankfort made the running for half the distance with The Dancer close up. In the last furlong Numeral came fast from the back, and under an energetic drive took the race by a head from Frankfort. Busy Lady was four lengths away. Numeral's victory was a surprise to followers of form, but it was nothing compared to the jarring sustained by the crowd when Blue Banner took the seventh race for maidens two-year-olds at the long price of 40 to 1, and as much as 60 to 1 was on tap at one time. Blue Banner, with Cochran up, beat Eugenia Burch a length. Invincible, backed down from 30 to 1 to 12 to 1, was third, three lengths away.

Y. M. C. A. ENTRIES FOR SATURDAY'S GAMES

Largest List Shown Here in Recent Athletic Meets.

Baltimore Organizations Alone Send Over Fifty Men to Compete With Local Track and Field Men.

The track and field handicap games to be held on Saturday afternoon, under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. at Association Park, Seventeenth and C Streets northwest, promise to be the most attractive and the most extensive held here in recent years.

The character of the performers is such that each event will be well contested.

There are over 150 entries in the games, and of these the Baltimore organizations alone send fifty-three, as follows: Baltimore Athletic Club, 13; Maryland Athletic Club, 3; Marston's School, 6; St. Leo's Gymnasium, 6; Central Y. M. C. A., 4; Maryland Agricultural College, 4; and of these there are ten juniors to compete with our youngsters.

Notwithstanding the long program and the number of contestants, Messrs. Rideout and Beckett, who have the affair in charge, promise that there will be no unnecessary delays, and that the events will be run off in schedule time. They announce that if contestants are not in place at the time scheduled for their event they will not be allowed to compete.

Relay Races a Feature.

One of the most attractive features of the card will be the relay races—the first between Maryland Agricultural College and Gallaudet and the other between the local Y. M. C. A. and the famous St. Leo's Gymnasium of Baltimore. The relay between Emerson Institute and Friends' Select School will be a sprint from beginning to end, and will be decidedly interesting. All these teams are well matched, and the events should be hotly contested.

Cracks in the Sprints.

The 100-yard dash promises to be one of the star events, as among the contestants will be found Dick Dear, of Central High; Phelps, of Gallaudet; Edmonston and Holland, of Georgetown University; Blome, of Baltimore A. C.; and Richardson, of local Y. M. C. A. The 220-yard dash, also, Georgetown will have competitors such cracks as Richardson and Kerr, Dent, Central High; Mullen, of Baltimore A. C., and Thom, of Columbia.

Special Junior Events.

A decidedly attractive feature of the card are the events scheduled for juniors ranging from 12 to 16 years of age. They will compete in seven special events, including the sprints, and runs and field events. The local association will put in some of its last season's winners and these should make it interesting for the little ones from Baltimore.

Handsome medals in gold, silver and bronze in job shape, will be given to first, second and third men.

Following are the events and entries complete:

Junior Events.

100-yard dash, junior handicap, boys 15 years and under—Bielaski, Wetzel, Wayland, Odell, Couden, Pazel, Ellsworth, Fleming, McKinney, Auerbach, Acheson, Manning, Y. M. C. A., Washington, D. C.

BASKETBALL WINNERS.

Corcoran Cadet Team Is Presented With the League Trophy.

The members of the Corcoran Cadet Corps and invited guests to the number of about fifty assembled in the company quarters last night for the purpose of formally presenting a handsome silver trophy cup to the cadets' champion basketball team. The occasion was a gala one, and made merry with song and jest and good fellowship.

The company, seated around the handsomely decorated tables, enjoyed a generous collation and then gave itself up to the event of the evening. Lieut. J. W. Crawford, president of the District Basketball League, presented the cup to the corps, and in his remarks, and his remarks, especially those referring to the Corcorans' good record, not only as champions, but as clean sportsmen, were enthusiastically applauded. He also spoke of amateur athletes generally in this city as being a better and a higher grade than
